New Research in Southeast Asian History
October 19, 2013

8:30  Continental Breakfast and Check-in

9:00  Panel 1- RELIGION AND AUTHENTICITY

Discussant: Professor Carol Carpenter, Yale University

- The Anatomy of a "False" Conversion
  Kevin Ko, Yale University

- A Domestication of Saints?: The History of the Wali Sanga Discourse in Java
  Verena Meyer, University of Wisconsin-Madison

- The Invention of "Religion" and the Rise of the Colonial State: The Role of the Majlis Ugama Islam dan Adat Istiadat melayu Kelantan (MAIK), 1900-1915
  Khaldun Malek, University of Cambridge

10:30  Panel 2 - MOBILIZED INTELLECTUALS

Discussant: Professor Erik Harms, Yale University

- A Modernist Madrasah in Hyde Park? Encounters Between the University of Chicago and Indonesian Islamic Intellectuals
  Megan Abbas, Princeton University

- Imagining a Cosmopolitan Moment within Siamese Absolutism: The Case of Khana Suphapburut's Members
  Thiti Jamkajornkeiat, University of California, Berkeley

- A Vietnamese Case Study of Southeast Asian Pan-Asianism: The Political Philosophy and Resistance Movement of Phan Boi Chau
  Nicole CuUnjieng, Yale University

12:00  Lunch Buffet

KEYNOTE TALK

Erik Harms
Assistant Professor of Anthropology
Yale University
1:30  Panel 3 - STATE FORMATION AND EMPIRE

Discussant: Professor Bradley Davis, Eastern Connecticut State University

- Frontiers of Meaning: Discourses around Legality in 19th Century British Burma and Siam
  Meghna Chaudhuri, New York University

- Empires without States: Malayan Imaginings of Rum and the Early Modern Ottoman Empire
  Faizah Zakaria, Yale University

- North Vietnamese Statehood and Diplomacy in the Interwar Period 1954-1959
  Cindy Ewing, Yale University

3:00  Panel 4 - TRADE AND EXCHANGE

Discussant: Professor James C. Scott, Yale University

  Elmo Gonzaga, University of California, Berkeley

- Coding the Historic City: Codes, Zoning, and the Selective Reconstruction of Old Bangkok
  Napong Rugkhapan, University of Michigan

- Chinese-Malay Collaboration in Early Malacca
  ShawnaKim Lowey-Ball, Yale University

4:30  Reception